CURRENT COMMENT

Our contemporary the Bulletin is getting more and more unscrupulous as the desperate straits of the Laurier Administration becomes more apparent. To latest take it is to place a piece of editorial comment on its front page, put Ottawa and a date on top of it and give it to its readers as if it was ordinary news received in the ordinary way through untainted sources. Yesterday under the heading of "Still at variance on October 11" it gives a long and absolutely untruthful account of the state of affairs which the bill has produced. One paragraph is noticeable:

"The contention of the government, as borne out by the facts adduced during the debate, is that the Dominion government has used and is using its control to disfranchise hundreds of electors. To safeguard the rights of all electors and to insure that every elector who has a right to vote should be placed on the lists, the government asks the electors to consent to the absolutely fair proposition of taking the whole matter out of the control of officials specially appointed by either the federal or the provincial government."

That these statements are a tissue of falsehoods from beginning to end may be judged from the fact that the Winnipeg Telegram made a public offer to pay $25 for each man that should be on the Manitoba list and wasn't, one half to go to the man deprived of his vote and the other half to the Winnipeg Telegram. Further the Telegram offered to leave the decision to THE LEADER OF THE LIBERAL OPPOSITION in the Manitoba House from whose verdict there was to be no appeal. If the organ of the Hon. Clifford Sifton—the Winnipeg Free Press—thought there was a word of truth in their assertions they might earn both grit votes and benefit the cause of charity. They know however, that the Telegram cannot be challenged and they prefer to ignore the old and rely on their familiar vehicle, the unscrupulous exaggeration of slanderous falsehood. It forms a poor substitute for argument founded on fact.

THE BALACLAVA BUGLE

(Lloyd's Weekly)

On a morning in October fifty-four years ago, on a battlefield in the Crimea, a bugle was blown whose notes will never die out while courage and determination are the heritage of the British race. Some one blundered on that morning when Trumpet Major Henry Joy of the 17th Lancers was ordered to sound the charge which sent the Light Brigade, valiantly and thundering into the Valley of Death. "All the world wondered at their mad charge and it is as true true today as when the deed was done, dead as when Tennyson wrote of it, that their 'lance will never die.' It is, therefore, a matter for congratulation that Joy's trumpet will become a national possession. At the break-up of a private museum recently it was bought by an unknown bidder who now proves to be Mr. W. W. Astor, and who has presented the trumpet to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Museum. Mr. Astor is American-born but he has lived for a long time in England, and became a naturalized British citizen some time ago. By his thoughtful and liberal act for the trumpet cost cost a tidy sum, Mr. Astor has set the seal upon his citizenship. The English people will be grateful to him more especially as it was heard at one time that Joy's trumpet together with his medal, would cross the Atlantic to re-rich the collection of some of America's many millionaires. The medals however, are also to remain in this country, and will reside side by side with the bugle in the museum at Whitehall.

WHERE THE GRASS GROWS GREEN

By Maude Radford Warren, in Collier's Weekly

When my wife is to a party and the house is all the way, I slip into the kitchen where I sit and drink alone.

I forget me billion dollars and the place I have seen.

Since I played a lute in Ireland, where the grass grows green.

Sure my daughter Kate is stylish as any girl in town.

You should see the jinks and bangs on her latest Paris gown.

But there's days I'd like to watch her a barefoot, country queen.

Tossin' her grass on Westford hills, where the grass grows green.

They call me 'Pigskin' Terence," when I walk West knows me glib.

Be it Board of Trade or politics me fingers never slip.

Then I mind me cool shillalagh, that I seem wild all alone here.

Breakin' heels av County Cork byes at a Westford cattle fair.

Well, Broadway is a different place from Balynarrig Bridge.

And Murray Hill is different from Baniskerry Ridge.

And I wish that I could cut away the years that lay between.

And be a ragged young goosoon where the grass grows green.

Piles are easily and quickly checked with Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. To prove it I will mail a small trial box as a convincing test. Simply address Dr. Shoop, Racine Wis. I surely would not send it free unless I was certain that Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment would stand the test. Remember it is made expressly and alone for external, bleeding or itching piles, either external or internal. Large jar 50c. Sold by all druggists.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not a real disease. We think of dyspepsia, indigestion, and indigestion as diseases. It is not. It is only a symptom of a certain specific cause. The cause of that cause is the stomach. The stomach is the organ that receives the food, and it is the organ that digests the food. If the stomach is diseased, the food is not digested, and the result is indigestion. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is the only medicine that cures indigestion. It is the only medicine that cures the stomach. It is the only medicine that cures the cause of indigestion. It is the only medicine that cures the disease. It is the only medicine that cures the symptom. It is the only medicine that cures the cause, the disease, and the symptom. It is the only medicine that cures the stomach. CANADA IS THE MAKING.

Mr. Charles Clark, late clerk of the Legislature of Ontario whose reminiscences under the title of "Sixty years in Upper Canada," have just been published by William Briggs, Toronto, tells a story, says 'Canada' which is marked by few uncommon incidents and hardly anything which could be called sensational. But he has played his part—a part neither great nor yet small—in the political and social development of Upper Canada, has lived long and seen much of many affairs and at the request of his many friends has set down his reminiscences in a pleasant "garrulous style" which has not the fault of pose in the slightest degree. His portrayal, which forms the frontispiece of the book, shows him as a hale and hearty veteran, gallantly bearing the burden of his years.

He was born at Lincoln in England, and during his youth was acquainted with Thomas Cooper, the Chartist; George Moore, who now ranks as a really great mathematician Lyttelton Bulwer, and other minor celebrities. He gives a very picturesque description of the election of the last-named as a Reform candidate. In 1841 he went to Upper Canada, then a community where luxury was unknown.
Here is his description of living in Ontario fifty or sixty years ago—

"Let us make comparisons with the dress of sixty years ago and take the ordinary working farmer of that day as our lay figure. Heavy flannel shirt, waistcoat, coarse linen-woolsey shirting, all of home manufacture, comfortable, strong and serviceable, formed the main part of his wear. Stoga boots and home made and coarse straw hats generally completed his costume. In the winter his head was often a cap of fur, made from the skin of an animal shot by himself, and for the season of frost, he wore the nearly universal, head-placed winter summer straw. Home made water and flannel with a painted calico dress, and a black Orleans or alpaca for best wear were the pride and ambition of the farmer's wife. Canada linens were unknown, fine brought from England, and were little used, and a black silk was a rarity. Woolen coats in winter, a straw hat with a bonnet in summer, with a go-tometter hat or bonnet formed the headgear of our gentle country compatriot. The men's hats were uncommon prodigious at funerals, and regarded as a venerable remnant of Old Country finery. Broadleaved hats of felt were, if may be added, the outcome of the visit made to America by Kosuth, the Hungarian patriot.
Town folk made a near approach to European fashions, but they were of ten a year or two behind those of the Motherland.

"Food, which is ever regarded as at least, next in importance to dress, partook of a similar simplicity. Salt meat, eggs and potatoes were the staple articles of food. Fresh meat country paria was at some seasons a comparative luxury. Veal was obtainable in spring, mutton in summer and beef or pork in the fall or winter months, while poultry was generally marketed as soon as possible after the fattening stubble were exhausted. Fancy groceries were actual luxuries. I have seen servants 'three yarkers' (37½ cents) a pound; and raisins of a poorer quality than we now see, often commanded a quarter. Tea was dear, although duties were low, and frequently brought a dollar; and coffee cheaper in proportion, was more freely used. Native frogs were cheap. — Peaches were brought off the tree in the Niagara district for twenty-five cents a bushel; apples and little commercial value, and cherries could be had in rural localities in the Niagara district at twenty-five cents a tree, the purchaser picking off the fruit. Apple and beer were obtainable of drinkable quality in town, but little of either reached country. Cider was often used, as the most desirable being 'brown' so that the watery element was largely eliminated, and a very potent intemperant produced."

D. C.'S VIEWS ON THE AYLES-WORTH ATROCITY ACT.

(Saturday Sunset)

From the very beginning of the introduction of the Aylesworth question at a meeting of the Manitoba and British Columbia out for special treatment, it has been assumed bound to be regarded with suspicion in both these provinces. One interpretation which has been put upon it would seem to indicate that British Columbia is about to face a menace which all the evils of Asiatic immigration rolled into one, could not have complicated under the provincial method of preparing the voters' lists.

One would have thought that Laurier and his crowd had gone far enough in their treatment of this province without this last straw.

Is there no one who will take Laurier to one side and tell him the truth about this province? Or has he become so deliberately set the sentiments of British Columbia at defiance once more?

But instead of being informed of the conditions in British Columbia we are told that Duncan Ross, M.P., supports the amendment. On what grounds he does so is not apparent except that he says the present lists are "rotten."

The last provincial elections were keenly and in some instances acrimoniously fought in this province, but I fail to recall a single charge of unfairness or discrimination in the methods of preparing the voters' lists.

On the other hand a Liberal who was returned, told me that in his constituency he had added hundreds of names to the lists. No one is so "sensible" as to accept the theory that the Aylesworth amendment has been drafted to afford relief to oppressed voters deprived of the franchise by the Tory Governments of Manitoba and British Columbia. Viewing the Government's election record of scandals the public is perfectly justified in believing that the Dominion Government means to staid by violence, acts which it cannot win in fair contest in both these provinces.

Mr. Borden's course in refusing to pass approval to the killing claims are removed will meet with general approval British Columbia.

There is not one reason advanced in support of the amendment which could not be applied to any other province than Manitoba or British Columbia.
The claim is made that because provincial shillings over those of the federal government, the amendment must be removed from one list to another. That is where Timine-line Leach got in his line work in Manitoba. He ran his thin red line through Consecutive names and neglected to put them on the other lists. And it is this which the amendment now amendment seeks to legalize as well as to destroy the secrecy of the ballot by legalizing the acts made upon it by deputy returning officers.

But aside from the fact that opposing voters may be deprived of the franchise in this province that Anderson in this province may be enfranch-ised by Dominion leaders is the great desideratum in British Columbia.

"That laudable, lifelong feeling that came with spring and early summer can be quickly changed to a feeling of loathing and energy by the influence of the Aylesworth Amendment."

The Restorative is a genuine tonic to tired, rundown nerves, and but a few doses is needed to satisfy the user that Dr. Shoop's Restorative is actually reaching that tired spot. The effect is of a tonic nearly always leads to sluggish blood and sleepy circulation in general. The customary lack of exercise and outdoor activity, and a times weakens the Heart's action. Use Dr. Shoop's Restorative a few weeks and all will be changed. A few days rest will tell you that you are using the right remedy. You will easily and surely note the change from day to day. Sold

ENGLISHMEN BEING SWINDLED
(Canadian Courier)

A school for cowboys has been started in England. The object is to teach Englishmen what they ought to learn if they expect to become citizens of Western Canada. Prominent men who have been in the colonies are interested in the scheme. A miniature ranch has been started within twelve miles of London. The principal of the school takes something about a thousand dollars of the sponsoring frontiersman's money before he teaches a lesson in the art of cow-boying after that the victim is taught how to mount and throw a horse, to pack a pack-saddle, to brandish a stock whip and to throw a lasso—in short about a hundred things that he never has to do at all in Western Canada. He will learn a great deal better by actual experience and for less money than he will pay the ranching tutor in England. The fact of the matter is that Western Canada does not need graduated cowboys; she is able to procure all the native cowboys she needs: in fact the cowboy is just a ghost and already and will soon be a gentle memory among the wheat-fields and the thrashing machines. Let the school for cowboys be primary rather than the mild swindles that are so recursive with some people in the mother land.

SOCIALISTIC SAUCE.

Chicago, Ill., May 19.—The Solcialists in national convention have adopted a platform after a discussion that grew acrimonious at times. As soon as the platform was adopted the convention proceeded at midnight to select a candidate for president.
The name of Eugene V. Debs, of Indiana, was placed before the delegates.
Phil. Calvary, of Missouri, presented the name of Debs in a speech assailing President Roosevelt for his "understandable citizen's" remarks and declared the president to be "the most despicable health of the Star. He also cast aspersions at W. T. Hyatt, Secretary of the American Federation of Labor, and the thrashing machine. Let
the school for cowboys be primary rather
land.
